

Medical Engineering Resources
Tussenklappen WZ 21
9649 EC Muntendam
The Netherlands
Tel: +31 598 634 420

Medical Engineering Resources

Newsletter November, 2015

Dear,

Compamed Düsseldorf, 16-19 November 2015

You are invited!

All our partners will join us in exhibiting at Compamed which this year, will run parallel with the Medica show for four days instead of three. Visit our stand in Hall 8B/ K09 where you will have the unique opportunity to meet face-to-face with our experts who provide the most innovative medical device technologies and solutions. We look forward to seeing you there! Read more

News

10-11-2015 | Tim Noppert, MER

Medical

MER-Europe Offers Solutions in Bioabsorbable Implant Materials - Bioabsorbable materials and implants made of these materials have been in development for about 15 years. New PLA resins and manufacturing techniques... read more

10-11-2015 | Kevin Shutes, K-Tube Technologies

Engineering

Miniature Stainless Steel Tubing... Have you ever wondered how it's made? - K-Tube Technologies has been manufacturing high quality, custom tubing for more than 40 years. They developed the process of miniature laser welding for hypodermic needle production... read more

10-11-2015 | Chris Mazelin, SSF

Resources

Silicone in Minimally Invasive Surgery

Applications -The application of silicone rubber in medical devices seems to be endless Silicone has a proven track record of being a stable biomaterial and is available in a wide variety of medical- and impantable grades... read more

Representing

